19th Organic World Congress-2017

Jaivik Krishi Vishwa Kumbh

09-11 November 2017

The Organic World Congress

The Indian organic agriculture and food fraternity feel proud to be the host for 19th Organic World Congress (Jaivik Krishi Vishwa Kumbh) 2017 during 09-11 November 2017 at International Expo Centre and Mart, Greater Noida. This is the first time, the Organic World Congress (OWC) is happening in India. Agricultural Processed Food Products Export Development Authority (APEDA) is the principal partner to the event.

The Organic World Congress is the largest event of organic agriculture and food sector and witnesses the presence of entire organic agriculture and food fraternity from across the globe. The OWC 2017 features an International Congress and a Trade Fair. More than 2500 delegates comprising of Exporters, processors, retail chain industry, certification bodies and producers/ producer groups from across the world are likely to participate in the congress, while Trade Fair is open to all and offers direct business opportunities through direct display of items, direct contact with international buyers and through B2B meets.

Showcasing India Organic

To showcase the strength of India as major hub for organic food products, ingredients, commodities and processing food raw material and to display wide variety of organic products being produced under National Programme for Organic Production, APEDA proposes to develop an exclusive pavilion under India Organic Theme in the trade fair.

Entire organic agriculture fraternity comprising of organic products exporters, retailers, traders, processors, ICS management bodies, certification bodies and certified organic farmer groups are invited to be the part of this India Organic Theme Pavilion. Participation is offered through hiring of shell spaces in the multiples of 9 sq mt. Terms and conditions for participation and rates of hiring of exhibition space are attached.

As your organization has significantly contributed to the growth of India Organic sector, we invite your participation in the trade fair under India Organic Pavilion of APEDA and request you to reserve your exhibition space. Allotment of space is being done on first come first serve basis.

Terms and conditions and rates for space hiring are attached at Annexure I.

Partnering Marketing Track Sessions

The Marketing and Quality Assurance Track under OWC is being spearheaded by APEDA. Partnership opportunities are also available for marketing track sessions.

Trade Specific Workshop

During three days of the event APEDA proposes to organize 5 trade/commodity specific workshops (each of 90 minutes duration). Partnerships are also invited for successful organization of trade/commodity specific workshops.

Buyer-Seller Meets

APEDA proposes to invite large numbers of organic products buyers from different countries. Direct interaction with international buyers will be facilitated through B2B meets, RBSM and buyer-seller meets.

For expression of interest in any of the above events and for hiring the space in trade fair under India Organic Pavilion, contact General Manager, Organic, APEDA.
